

The Minor Football League (MFL), the nation's premier professional developmental football organization, is expanding into the Carolinas under the leadership of Clennie Wilkins, General Manager of the Coastal Division. This expansion brings new opportunities for athletes and aspiring sports professionals to grow within a nationally recognized platform dedicated to development, exposure, and advancement.

The MFL is currently accepting applicants for the upcoming season in the following areas:

- Developmental Players (All Positions)
- Coaching Internships
- Cheer/Dance Team Members & Coaches
- Sports Media Interns
- Marketing Interns
- Band Members
- Sponsors & Community Partners

This expansion represents a major step forward for football talent and sports professionals across North and South Carolina, offering a structured pathway into the world of professional sports.
